We'll Keep Flying

U. S. V.—(U. S. āVy.)

ALONZO NEWTON BENN

In March Time

* Āvyplane, armed and armored aeroplane.

We'll build a mil-lion * ā-vy-plane, To fly a-cross the o-cean; And when(s)hell-fire be-We'll chase the boche back o'er the Rhine, They'll go all hel-ter-skel-ter; And march no more to We'll lick the Kai-ser and his kin, Yes! lick them good and plen-ty; And Lib-er-ty shall gins to rain, There'll be a big com-mo-tion. We'll fly a-bove the clouds so high, Hun goose-step time, As they hot-foot for shel-ter. We'll pi-lot straight for old Ber-lin, To then be-gin, For plebe as well as gen-try. De-moc-ra-cy the world shall lead, Au-guns our flight can't hin-der; And when we drop our bombs quite nigh, They'll hus-tle for tall tim-ber!

 bomb the Kai-ser's pal-ace; And make him rue his hell-ish sin, Of burn-ing church and chal-ice!
 toc-ra-cy shan't tar-ry; We'll then go fly-ing at top speed, Right home to sweetheart Ma-ry!
